PRESIDENT's Message:

ACCUQUILT DEMOS

Challenge Selection

Janice C.

“Walking in a winter wonderland...”

Last year in January we had snow, power outages, and other mid-winter events. I’m not a cold weather fan, so I’m fine without snow days.

Sometimes January is a time to look back at last year’s achievements or make a list of projects for the new year. Several online quilters have offered advice for completing WIPs, getting creative juices flowing, managing time, and other resolutions for the new year.

One of my recent favorite online quilty activities is the Stay At Home Round Robin (SAHRR) offered by Quilting Gail. Instead of trading quilts and adding on a row or border, each quilter makes their rows, blocks, or borders on their own quilt. Each week a new prompt is given. Quilters make their chosen elements, take a photo, and share with the group. At the end there is a drawing for prizes. All the participants are entered in the drawing. Twice I have won prizes but even without winning a prize the SAHRR is a fun way to kick start a new quilt.

What are your sewing plans this January? We have charity quilts that need finishing. Our guild has agreed to make mini quilts for new homeowners-24 inches square with positive messages. My flimsy is finished and I hope to finish it before our January meeting.

Hoping for mild weather and to see YOU at our January meeting on the fourth Tuesday.

Happy Sewing!
Janice C.

PROGRAMS:

Melissa D.

Hopefully the new year has been kind to everyone so far. We have some very kind and generous members who, at our January meeting, will be doing a demo with their AccuQuilt machines. If you've ever been curious about how they work, what's the difference between models, what the die are like, how long the mat lasts, or any other questions, this is the Program for you!

We will have a few different AccuQuilt machines set up in stations that you can gather around to see a demonstration, then try it yourself. What will we do with all the cut fabric? Make a quilt, of course! We will be bagging up the pieces for different blocks to make a charity quilt kit. If a few members are willing to bring their sewing machines, we can even sew together a few of the blocks to see what difference the AccuQuilt cutting system makes!

Sincerely,
Melissa

Pat D

Happy New Year!!! We can all calm down now since the holiday season is officially over. I went by the hospice center last week and picked up 5 Christmas quilts which I will hold on to for the coming Christmas 2026. Which means they used 9 quilts in December. I think we are good for January and February 2026 so you can relax. This month's program we will be making hospice tops from the AccuQuilt patterns. It's so nice that we have members willing to bring their AccuQuilt cutters and we have hospice fabric to work with. AND we have such a great bunch of quilters to put together the tops. We are so thankful to each of you for all you do to make this possible. See you at guild.

CHALLENGE

Wendy J & Christine G

Congratulations to the seven members who won the 2025 challenge drawing. Four members who were not present last month will receive your prizes at our meeting this month.

This is the month for the members to vote for your preferred quilt 2026 challenge:

*Row by Row small group participation

*Sewcialites 3 free sampler quilt along with 25 blocks sponsored by The Fat Quarter Shop

ROW BY ROW:

Below, you will see Christine's two examples of her Row by Row quilts. The Party Quilt has rows 31 x 7 finished. The Snowman rows are 40 x 7 1/2 finished.

Instructions: The owner of the quilt makes the first row and states the theme she is interested in. The owner can add as much fabric as she wishes for the quilt in order to help with completion. Other fabric can be added by the row makers. Those wishing to participate will be divided into groups of 6, this will result in 6 complete rows. After the first row is complete, the row and supporting fabric are placed in a bag or box so it cannot be seen until the last swap. Each team member has the month to add their row to the previous ones. If the person cannot be present to pass the work in process top, she is responsible for making arrangements to pass to the next name on the list by the end of guild week. Christine proposes we opt for 6.5 inch unfinished blocks, and it is to be finished at 7 blocks. This will give a row of 6 x 42 finished. Not all rows have to have 7 identical blocks. See Christine's examples. If the sign up can be January/February, Christine will compile the groups and at the March meeting we will announce the groups. The first hand off will be April and finish in September. The final completed tops will be shown at the Christmas meeting.

If you have questions please ask Christine.

SEWCIALITES 3: fatquartershop.com

The Sewcialites quilt is made up of 25 free blocks designed by 25 designers. Each pattern is marked with the difficulty level, from Beginner to Experienced, and all have straight seams and use traditional piecing techniques. You may choose to make 3", 6", or 9" blocks. Feel free to substitute difficult blocks or customize your quilt with blocks from the free Sewcialites 1 or Sewcialites 2, or blocks of your choice.

Every Friday, The Fat Quarter shop will release a new FREE block pattern from one of the 25 talented designers, and Kimberly Jolly of the Fat Quarter Shop will sew that week's block live on their Fat Quarter Shop YouTube Channel! Running from Friday, February 20th to Friday, August 21st, you'll have a new quilty reason to look forward to the end of each week. We will extend the quilt completion date for our November meeting. There will be no quilt police checking to see if you finished the weekly blocks during the scheduled weeks.

If you want automatic updates about Sewcialites 3, you can subscribe to the Jolly Jabber Blog newsletters and the Fat Quarter Shop YouTube channel. You can also bookmark the Sewcialites Supply Page to easily come back to the fabric requirements and all the FREE block patterns as they go live!

Think about these two challenges and be ready to vote for your choice during our January 27 general meeting.

Happy quilting,
Wendy J and Christine G

Welcome Home Community Service Project Habitat for Humanity of Greater Memphis 2026

Guild members are asked to make an art quilt of a house for new Habitat homeowners. You have creative leeway as for the colors and design except the quilt must:

- Be a house (applique, paper piece, etc.)
- Measure 2 feet by 2 feet
- Have a hanging sleeve
- Incorporate word(s) of inspiration - hope, peace, love, joy, faith, etc.

30 quilts are needed for the spring dedication that typically occurs in April/May. Our guild will be invited to attend the dedication. The deadline will be our March 2026 meeting date. This may be extended based on final confirmation of the Habitat dedication date.

Questions: Email kathy,r.m.cowan@gmail.com or call 901-218-4021.

The quilt below may give you an idea, although it is about 4 feet by 4 feet.
