PRESIDENT'S

Message:

Janice C.

"Deck the hall with boughs of holly, Fa la la la la, la la la la.
'Tis the season to be jolly, Fa la la la la, la la la la."

Hello Quilty Friends,

For many of us it is time to decorate for the holidays. My tree is up as you can see in the photo. Some are celebrating other special days at this time of year. There are many light centered holy days around the world. Hanukkah, Diwali, Kwanza, and Lunar New Year were some my students shared with us in ESL class.

If you ask a child who is coming soon, you are sure to hear about Santa, presents, wishlists, and magical moments. Waiting for the chubby elf to fill stockings and leave presents under the tree is hard for children. Some time along the way we might have lost that sense of expectation and wonder.

One quilter keeps those who have a hard time celebrating at this time of year in mind by offering a mystery quilt-along each year at the holidays. She started the mystery especially for those who are lonely and sad and need something to look forward to making during the long, dark winter nights. What a great free gift for quilters. I have only made one mystery quilt but each year I download the clues, just in case I need to keep busy quilting.

As we celebrate our thirty years of friendship and quilting, try sharing your sewing skills. Have you made a block for a past president? We have several past presidents who have their blocks posted on our website. Let them know you appreciate the time they took to lead our group by making a block.

We are going to have fun at our December meeting. Find important information about our THIRD Tuesday meeting in this newsletter. Carol will be presiding at the meeting. Have fun and I will see you in the new year.

Happy Sewing, Janice C

Show & Tell: Donna N

I look forward to seeing everyone at the pot luck December meeting. Thanks to Jane the games are always fun. Be sure to bring a tree block to exchange, and your show and tell projects. And please tell Claire if it's "top secret" and not to post on social media.

And if you can't come, please send photos to share.

Merry Christmas
Donna.

Retreat: Iris T. & Melissa D.

Well, it's been a month since retreat. How many of you have finished any of the quilts from the 2 classes that Natalie taught? She was a fantastic teacher, wasn't she!! The surveys were reviewed...most said they had a great time. Of course, several want a bigger free sewing area. The only area available is using the dining room. In the past, many of us used this area. We had three classes every time slot. So there wasn't an actual free sewing area except the dining room.

Now I will pass the torch to Melissa D. beginning in January, 2026. No plans yet but any suggestions will be accepted!!

Hope all of you have a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year!!

PROGRAMS:

Melissa D.

The Program Committee is preparing for a super fun Christmas Program this year! For anyone who wants to participate in one of the games, please plan to make/buy a small gift (value $15 or under) to pass back and forth during the game.

We also plan to do a Christmas tree block exchange this year during our Christmas Program. If you want to participate in the block exchange, please plan to bring an unfinished 12" minimum - 15" maximum square block in traditional holiday colors making any Christmas tree pattern you like. These can make cute wall panels, pillowcases, table runners, etc. and would be a sweet item to have from a guild friend.

Sincerely,
Melissa

The members of our guild never let us down. We delivered 14 Christmas quilts. I'm so proud of all of you. If you are working on Christmas quilts bring them to the next meeting and I can deliver them too. As usual, I will bring kits to the next meeting. Don't feel pressured we know this is a busy time of the year. If you are bored we always have quilt tops that need quilted. Remember to look at the house quilt blocks for wall quilts for those families who have worked hard to build their homes. Kathy presented a wonderful challenge for us.
Thank you all for all you do.

Have a wonderful holiday season and remember why we celebrate.
Your community quilts committee wish you a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!

We welcome the treasures that you bring. These are items that need a new home and can go to a new home the night of our meeting. Pay what you feel is appropriate but if the items that you bring don't find a new home that night, please take them back with you. Due to our limited space, we cannot store anything. So, items that don't sell will be discarded that night.

Thanks.

CHALLENGE

Wendy J & Christine G

Hello quilt friends!

We have come to the end of this block of the month journey. Thanks to the sixteen guild members who participated. Please share your favorite completed block or blocks of the month during our December meeting. If you completed projects made with your blocks, please share your favorite. We will celebrate briefly during our December meeting.

There will be drawings for several prizes during our December meeting for our challenge block participants. Block participants, see Wendy to make sure that we have the correct number of blocks that you completed.

Christine and I have differing ideas for our next challenge. Stay tuned, because we want your opinions on which one to choose for next year.

We look forward to seeing your favorite December block and/or your favorite project made with your blocks!

✂️ 📖 📱 Happy quilting and God bless,
Wendy J and Christine

Welcome Home Community Service Project Habitat for Humanity of Greater Memphis 2026

Guild members are asked to make an art quilt of a house for new Habitat homeowners. You have creative leeway as for the colors and design except the quilt must:

- Be a house (applique, paper piece, etc.)
- Measure 2 feet by 2 feet
- Have a hanging sleeve
- Incorporate word(s) of inspiration - hope, peace, love, joy, faith, etc.

30 quilts are needed for the spring dedication that typically occurs in April/May. Our guild will be invited to attend the dedication. The deadline will be our March 2026 meeting date. This may be extended based on final confirmation of the Habitat dedication date.

Questions: Email kathy,r.m.cowan@gmail.com or call 901-218-4021.

The quilt below may give you an idea, although it is about 4 feet by 4 feet.
